Calambour is pleased to introduce you our “Liberty” collection.

To create these papers our illustrators drew inspiration from the revolutionary Art Nouveau decorative style flourished in Europe between 1890 and 1910.

This style, originally popular in art and architecture, began to be widely used in the designing of furniture and accessories, which were then embellished with refined floral patterns, lines, curves and feminine silhouettes.

These eight papers will enhance your creations transforming them in real works of art.
