

The image features two cherubs in a classical painting style. The cherub in the upper left is shown from the waist up, holding a bow in its right hand and pointing its left index finger towards the viewer. It has large, feathered wings and is wearing a small, draped garment. The cherub in the lower right is shown from the waist down, lying on its side and holding a bow. It also has large, feathered wings. The background is a dark, moody landscape with a large tree trunk on the right and a lighter, hazy area on the left. The overall style is reminiscent of 17th or 18th-century European painting.
